

THE 2ND ALASKA AMPHIBIAN CONFERENCE

February 10th & 11th 2006

Juneau, Alaska

Topics include: amphibian physiology, genetics, population dynamics, biogeography, abnormalities, contaminants, habitat protection, species at risk and information gaps

Agency personnel, students, scientists and naturalists are invited to share information on Alaska's unique wild amphibians.

Friday, February 10

Featured Speakers - Stephen Corn, Cynthia Carey, Mike Adams
Presentations and Policy Updates
Posters on display throughout the day
UAS Egan Library

Saturday, February 11

Technical Workshops at UAS Egan Library
Public Activities for children and adults
at Mendenhall Glacier Visitors Center

See conference website at www.stikine.org/akherps2006 or call 907-780-1169 for more information.

